9336 Sideboard

By Bellotti Ezio

Description

The Traditional 9336 Sideboard by Bellotti Ezio is a refined and distinctive storage piece that places material texture at the center of its design. Its most recognizable feature is the use of white rattan cane across the doors, where the carefully woven surface creates a pattern reminiscent of textile construction while offering a more pronounced and naturally tactile appearance. The rattan weave introduces visual depth and subtle variation across the facade, softening the architectural character of the sideboard and giving the piece a handcrafted decorative quality. Its light coloration further emphasizes the woven pattern, allowing the texture to become a sophisticated focal point without relying on excessive ornamentation. Made in Italy.
