

Itala Too

Design: Gino Carollo

Description

Stool with structure in steel and cold-foamed polyurethane padding. The seat is height-adjustable with a gas piston incorporated into the base. The comfort of the stool is guaranteed by the accentuated padding of the seat, while the backrest, which becomes slimmer as it reaches the top, defines the light and linear silhouette.

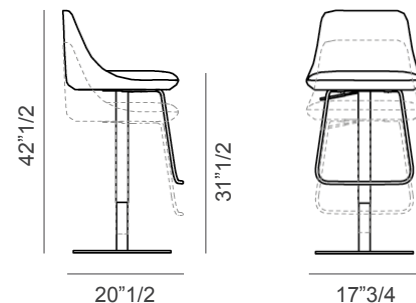

The upholstery is available in fabric, leather or eco-leather while the swivel base and footrest are offered in a wide range of colors to ensure maximum customization. Made in Italy.
