

Lock

Design: Alessandro Busana

Description

Lounge chair where the person takes centre stage, which develops around the user through a padded strip that folds onto itself to form a backrest. It comes upholstered in non-removable fabric or leather, with seat padded in cold-foamed polyurethane and polyester fiber and a swivel base offered in matt painted metal or with galvanized finish.

This furniture is available in the quilted version (Lock Ego) and in the bi-cover version, where the back part of the backrest can be chosen in a different category (no Eco leather). Also, to add more comfort, the charming Lock footrest is available as an optional. Made in Italy.

Note: The Ego version is only available with fabric cover with quilted parts bonded with polyester fibre and cotton fabric.
