

Aria

Design: Zaha Hadid

Description

Suspension lamp designed by Zaha Hadid which combines dramatic architectural features with the intrinsic weightlessness of the materials, creating a sculpture of light and technology that fascinates and enchants observers. The 50 individual layers of Cristalflex® and Lentiflex® with gold finish, work together to make Aria seem as if is about to take flight, characterized by complex yet harmonic forms that embrace the light source in a veiled breath. Made in Italy.
