

Owen

Design: Giuseppe Viganò

Description

Modern double bed with strict, clean and timeless lines that can be included in any context without disrupting its essential character. The softness of two large cushions that are linked to the headrest thanks to a padded roller, complete a well-proportioned design.

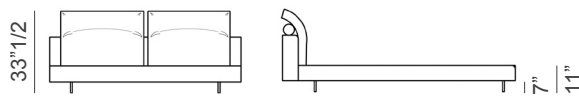

The removable cover is made of fabric, leather or eco-leather while the feet are in painted metal, available in different colors. In the quilted version (Owen ego), the cover is made of fabric. Made in Italy.
