

Velis

Design: Mario Ferrarini

Description

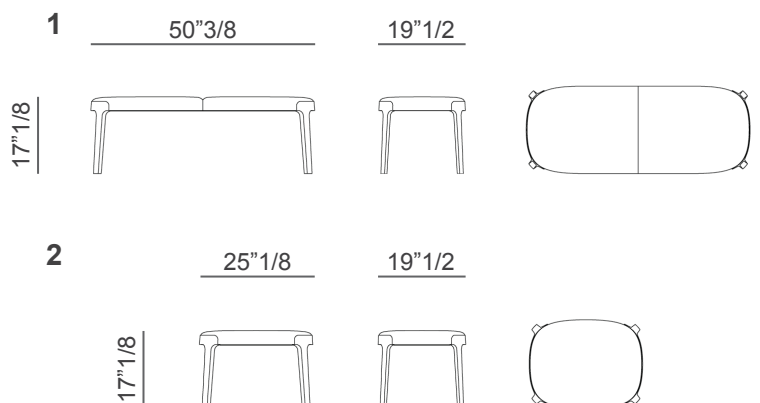

Velis is a wide collection of seating thought to satisfy different demands.

The Velis benches are characterized by a fully padded seat, upholstered in the fabrics or leathers as per collection, and frame in wood.

Multifunctional, the Velis benches are suitable for numerous contexts thanks to four variants that stand out for different sizes, height and design, determining their use and allowing them to create ever-changing compositions. Made in Italy.
