

Lyz

Design: Mario Ferrarini

Description

The Lyz chair and armchair demonstrate the company's know-how in working with wood as a living material compared to other different materials.

A relationship in which solid ash wood or Canaletto walnut are the structure on which the upholstery comes to life, available in upholstery depending on the collection.

Chair and armchair with seat and backrest padded in fire-retardant polyurethane foam, available in the fixed version with or without wooden insert in the seat base. Canaletto ash or walnut wood structure. Finishes and covers according to collection. Made in Italy.
