

Blackjoy

Design: Lorenzo Remedi

Description

Interplay and refinement, angularity softened, modernity elevated. We have tried and tried to explain what Lorenzo Remedi was thinking when he designed BLACKJOY but sometimes, the art is about the experience.

Crafted in dark glass with a striped surface, the attention to detail throughout BLACKJOY's design is something to behold; it's elegance that will never fade and speak to a whole new level of design and production for years to come. Welcome to the present & future of a new way to create.
