Description

Double bed characterized by the high craftsmanship of the manually-applied weaves in full-grain leather, which characterize the headboard, and the uninterrupted curves in the solid wood structure. The structure is enriched by further details: the edge that surrounds the perimeter of the bed is padded and covered in fabric. Made in Italy.

Structural Characteristics

- . Headboard: outer side edges in solid wood; inner structure in wood and wood chipboard; shaped polyurethane foam padding; lining in velveteen bonded with polyester fibre.
- . Bed base: bed base and feet in solid wood; inner structure with supports and corner plates in painted metal; shaped polyurethane foam padding; lining in velveteen bonded with polyester fiber.
- . Cover: headboard in woven full-grain leather; bed frame in fabric.
