

Climb

Design: Umberto Asnago

Description

The collection of CLIMB coffee tables is an exclusive piece of furniture, capable of enriching any environment, both domestic and professional, with a note of flair and originality. The bold geometries of the product, circular or trapezoidal, the sinuous bases, made up of hyperbolic blades of curved wood, the tops in precious materials, marble or saddle leather, the vertices and edges finely rounded and the different heights that allow their partial overlap they create a furnishing ensemble of great charm and impact.
