

Fine

Design: Daniele Lago

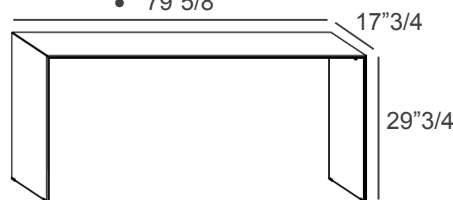

Description

The Fine console unit's minimalist design combines sleek glass aesthetics with an outstanding build, as shown by the 45° cut, that creates a high-end finish. An invisible support ensures the unit is perfectly stable and functional. Precision glass workmanship with a 45-degree join testifies to this product's outstanding build, making for a timeless design. Noble glass is Lago's hallmark design material, giving this product its clean-look lines. The material is also heat treated, making it ultra-resistant. Made in Italy.
