Design: Matteo Nunziati

Description

This collection deliberately characterized by simple volume and essential lines realized through sophisticated materials and manufacturing includes a series of furnishing elements (low cabinet, writing desk and mirror) in flamed black walnut wood with matt finishing that brings richness and particular elegance both visually and to the touch. Particularity of the collection is the marble Emperador Light with brushed satin finishing that at the light produces an exceptional matter and tridimensional effect. The writing desk is embellished with saddle leather drawers.
