Design: Daniele Lago

Dimensions

Irregular, curved forms that appear polished by the power of mother nature are what trace the outline of this occasional living room table perched on glass legs.

The tops replicate the organic shapes of precious stones, minerals and gems, and can be customized in all XGlass marble, metal, wood and fabric finishes, and matt or polished glass, allowing you to mix and match multiple occasional tables.

The soft, delicate lines of the glass tops create a harmonious design that sits well with any interior style, with infinite customization options for both the shapes and finishes.

The natural forms of the tops combine on different levels and use shape and color to create an elegantly intertwined composition and a unique feel in the living room.

Made in Italy.
