Description

The bow is a timeless architectural invention which, in this designed, has been flipped. It serves to support an ultra-lightweight top. This is the new sleek and simple U Table which aspires to giving a contemporary look to a classical form. It can be customized to create a functional, elegant product for both homes and public spaces alike.

The round forms of the table top increase its social, convivial feel, matching the sculptural base perfectly. The result is an incredible sense of equilibrium, sure to wow your diners.

The U Table is also available in the versions shaped and elliptical.

Made in Italy.
