

Gabri

Design: Matteo Zorzenoni

Description

A hug is a hug: what's the point of labelling it? For this, it does not matter if Gabri is a classic or contemporary bed. Arguably, it's both, with the enveloping, sensual lines of the headboard and the compact size making it perfect for both large and small rooms. The leather upholstery finished up to the smallest details makes it resemble a tailor's dress, while the geometric lines of the bed frame curve into a series of grooves designed to comfortably sink your hands and easily spread sheets and blankets. Non removable cover. Orthopaedic slatted base included. Mattress and cushions NOT included.

Made in Italy.
