

Otto 21662 / 21663

Description

Suspension lamp that captures attention with its geometric elegance. Crafted with hammered metal, this creation combines the robustness of design with high-quality craftsmanship. The octagonal structure of the lamp accommodates both internal and external lights, diffusing an enveloping light that highlights the hammered texture of the metal. The combination of internal and external lights creates a play of suggestive shadows, enriching the surrounding atmosphere. For an extra touch of sophistication, small LEDs are also positioned under the structure, adding subtle ambient lighting. Made in Italy.
