

Concorde

Design: Marco Piva

Description

The luxury Concorde armchair with shapes as broad as the square from which it takes its name is a comfortable seat, thanks to its full backrest. An armchair that is fluid in form and exquisite in finish. The circular metal section forms the basis for the regular cushioning and the outer raw metal legs. The Plaza collection recounts a metaphorical journey through European capitals, interpreting their most iconic urban squares, and consists of tables, chairs, cabinets, writing desks and consoles, designed not only for the most intimate domestic dimension, but also for dynamic reception spaces. Made in Italy.
