

Prior

Description

Characterized by a modern interpretation of classic shapes, the Prior executive desk covered in leather and calendered steel is a unique piece, made and manufactured entirely by hand. It has important dimensions, it is equipped with side containers with drawers with refined details entirely covered in leather. The project also provides for the possibility of arranging a peninsula covered in leather with a chest of drawers for documents. Prior stands out for its perfect elegance and sculptural beauty, to try to understand its true essence, it should be compared to a haute couture dress. A real tangible work of art. Each Italian handmade Mascheroni product is marked with a plate engraved with the brand "Mascheroni srl Made in Italy" which certifies its authenticity.
