

Public

Design: Dainelli Studio

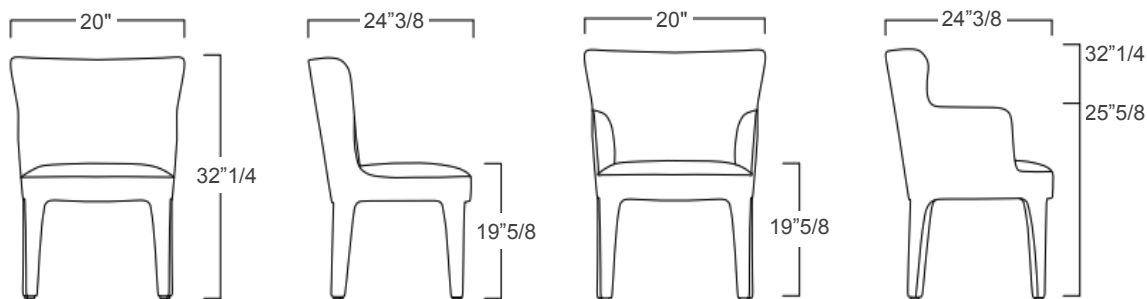

Description

This high-end chair appears as if it were drawn with a single continuous line, seamlessly defining the legs, seat, and backrest. In the version with armrests, the arms extend into a straight line that elegantly completes the backrest, in a fluid transition. Public, fully upholstered and covered in Leather or Fabric, has archetypal forms reinterpreted in a new, evocative and international key thanks to Dainelli's hand. Made in Italy.
