

Famiro

Design: Marco Fumagalli

Description

This lounge chair combines simple, clean lines with a sophisticated design that masterfully balances form and function.

Its beauty emerges from the interplay of minimalism and emptiness, where every curve and angle serves both an aesthetic and practical purpose, creating a piece that is as striking as it is functional.

The leather seat comes with a “cuoio effect” finishing paired with a high-wearing bonded leather.

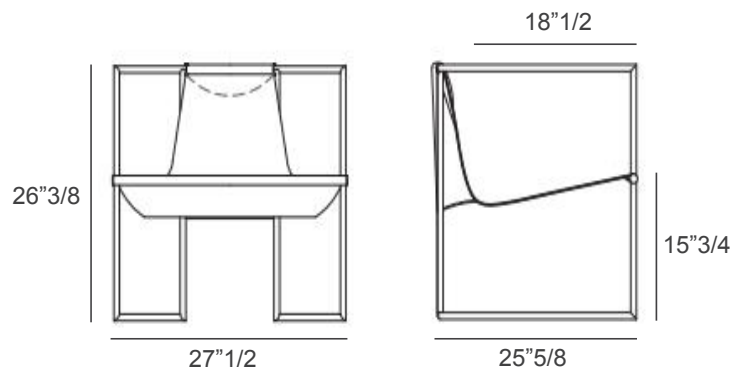

Made in Italy.
