

Lola

Design: Bosco Fair & Emanuele Genuizzi

Description

A classic piece of European design revised in its proportions and finishes, available in the counter or bar stool versions with an elegantly curving back. Internal frame and legs are made of beech wood. Frame upholstery in shaped polyurethane.

Every part of the Lola stool, from the legs to the seat, from the structure to the back, is covered in a single material, either leather or fabric. The refined piping detail becomes one of the characteristics of the stool and can be offered in contrasting leather. Made in Italy.
