

Gong

Design: Studio Tecnico Pacini&Cappellini

Description

The name of this nightstand recalls the relaxing sound of the instrument used in Tibetan temples, precisely because this set of tables recalls the gong not only in its rounded shape but also in its end: placed next to the bed or also in the living room as a coffee table, it invites you to relax thanks to the top that becomes a practical tray. The structure and tray are made of solid ash wood. Made in Italy.
