Description

Elegant in presence and profound in symbolism, this Antelope Ox sculpture is a rare creation, sculpted entirely from the illustrious crystal of Colle Val d'Elsa. Reserved for those who appreciate the intersection of natural beauty and artisanal mastery, the piece embodies quiet strength and refined grace.

Its slender, arched horns and poised stance are crafted with striking realism, each contour catching the light in a dance of shadow and brilliance. Forged by hand in the heart of Tuscany, where centuries-old craftsmanship meets contemporary sophistication, this sculpture transcends ornament.

Made in Italy.
