Description

A striking fusion of natural majesty and masterful craftsmanship, the Goat's Head sculpture is carved from luminous Colle Val d'Elsa crystal, emblematic of Italian excellence in fine glassware.

Characterized by its imposing horns, noble gaze, and angular elegance, the piece embodies resilience, independence, and serene authority.

Hand-finished in Tuscany by master artisans, the sculpture captures the pure spirit of the alpine creature with a level of precision and artistry reserved for the most discerning collections. Bold and elemental, it is not a simple representation, but a statement of character, luxury, and enduring craftsmanship. Available in different sets. Made in Italy.
