

Horse Rearing

Design: Duccio di Segna

Description

An emblem of pure power and unbreakable spirit, the Rearing Horse Sculpture is a commanding expression of movement and majesty, sculpted entirely from the finest Colle Val d'Elsa crystal. Revered for its exceptional clarity and brilliance, this crystal is born in the heart of Tuscany, a region synonymous with centuries of unparalleled glassmaking tradition.

Rising on its hind legs in a moment of pure defiance and grace, the horse's form is masterfully captured in dynamic tension. A unique fusion of equine energy and Italian artistry, this piece transcends mere ornamentation. It is a collectible work of art: bold, timeless, and undeniably iconic. Made in Italy.
