

Panther

Design: Duccio di Segna

Description

Refined and captivatingly graceful, this Panther sculpture is sculpted from pristine glass from Colle Val d'Elsa, Italy's renowned epicenter of artisanal glassmaking. Capturing the feline form in an instant of fluid movement, the piece embodies restrained strength and quiet elegance.

Every detail, from the curve of its tail to the intensity of its gaze, is molded with a sculptor's precision and a designer's eye for balance and form. Refined and imposing, this work of art is more than a representation: it is a statement of sophistication, designed for those who value the serene intensity of nature captured through masterful craftsmanship. Made in Italy.
