Description

A symbol of serene strength and winter majesty, this Reindeer Head sculpture is exquisitely crafted from the pure and luminous crystal of Colle Val d'Elsa, Italy's most revered center for fine glass art. With noble antlers branching upward in elegant symmetry and a gaze reflecting grace and resilience, this piece evokes the timeless spirit of nature's most majestic creature.

Sculpted with precision and reverence, every contour, from the chiseled snout to the imposing crown of antlers, is refined to perfection, allowing light to flow across its surfaces with luminous depth. The flawless crystal amplifies the sculpture's presence, transforming it into a radiant centerpiece that embodies luxury and tranquility. Made in Italy.
