Description

With a commanding presence and luminous purity, the Rhino sculpture is a masterpiece of form and symbolism, expertly crafted from the finest crystal from Colle Val d'Elsa, a revered hallmark of Italian luxury glassmaking. With its steadfast stance, imposing build, and iconic horn, the rhinoceros emerges as a symbol of resilience and serene strength, captured in a material as refined as it is enduring.

Light streams across its sculpted surface, refracting through the flawless clarity of the crystal and illuminating the power of its stillness. Bold yet sophisticated, this piece transcends the expected. It is a testament to permanence, purity, and craftsmanship, designed for those who value exceptional beauty forged by tradition and strength. Made in Italy.
