Description

Delightfully endearing yet exquisitely refined, this Baby Toucan sculpture is delicately handcrafted from the pure crystal of Colle Val d'Elsa, Italy's heart of fine glassmaking. With its oversized beak, gentle expression and playful posture, the piece captures the whimsical charm of youth in radiant crystalline form.

The sculpture's soft curves and luminous clarity highlight the expert craftsmanship behind every detail, blending innocence with elegance. Light reflects gently across its surface, bringing this charming creature to life with warmth and brilliance. This piece is an enchanting accent for collectors of fine art and nature-inspired décor.

Made in Italy.
