Design: Antonio De Marco

Description

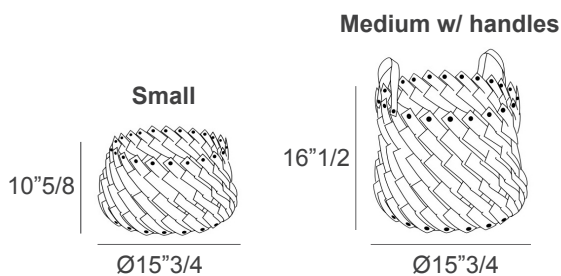

This set of two hand-woven baskets brings refined texture and everyday functionality to any space. Crafted from eco-friendly, washable and regenerated leather, both pieces are suitable for indoor and outdoor use—resistant to light and water. The set includes two round baskets in different heights: the small one offers a solution for organizing towels, accessories, or everyday essentials, while the medium basket—equipped with practical handles—adds extra capacity, making it ideal for storing blankets, shoes, or laundry in bathrooms, closets, or by the pool. A perfect duo to combine utility with timeless elegance. Made in Italy.
