Design: Antonio De Marco

Description

This set of four round washcloth holders in different sizes brings both elegance and functionality to your space. Crafted with water-resistant woven strips that taper gracefully, each piece is finished with sleek chrome pins for a refined touch. Whether used in the bathroom to hold small towels or as decorative catch-all baskets throughout the home, their soft curves and sculptural texture make them both practical and visually appealing. Available in a selection of serene tones, this set offers versatility in both use and style. Made in Italy.
