

Thalia

Description

The Thalia set is a refined composition of two trays and a matching box, crafted with a minimalist wooden structure fully covered in genuine leather. Metal details add a sculptural edge: the trays feature sleek handles, while the box is topped with a decorative knot. Each piece is designed to bring understated elegance to any modern setting. Perfect for serving during casual gatherings, styling a coffee table, or storing cherished objects, the Thalia set blends contemporary design with timeless sophistication. Made in Italy.
