

Rook

Design: Karim Rashid

Description

The Rook table lamp stands out for its balance of form and color. The technique of mouth-blowing the glass gives the lamp an artisanal charm and a unique imperfection that tells the story of each piece. The diffusion of light through the shiny and opaque colored glass creates a lively and pleasant atmosphere. The shape, soft and delicate, counterbalances the strength of the colors, confirming the new experimental path undertaken by the brand. Bulbs not included.
Made in Italy.
