

Knight

Design: Emilio Nanni

Description

Knight is an elegant and sophisticated design piece that seamlessly combines comfort and style. Crafted from fine leather, its smooth surface offers a luxurious feel and inviting warmth to the touch. The enveloping shape, with its soft, curved lines, embraces the body in a gentle, welcoming hug, while the back cushion adds an extra layer of comfort.

A sturdy structure and refined design make Knight the perfect choice for creating a relaxing corner in the living room or office—where elegance and functionality meet in harmony. Made in Italy.
