

Miro

Design: Marco Fumagalli

Description

The Miro coffee table plays with perception, transforming a familiar everyday object into a true design statement. Its discreet yet sophisticated allure lies in the precision of their proportions and the harmony of materials. Subtle curves, refined details, and a seamless balance between structure and surface invite a closer look, revealing craftsmanship that rewards both touch and sight.

More than just a functional piece, it becomes quiet icons of contemporary living — versatile, elegant, and effortlessly timeless.
