Design: Marco Fumagalli

Description

A harmonious blend of elegance and craftsmanship, this round mirror is distinguished by its frame meticulously wrapped in fine leather. The leather softens the reflective surface with a warm, tactile presence, while precise stitching and seamless joins highlight its artisanal quality. Available in different sizes, it creates a striking visual rhythm when displayed individually or in a composition, adding depth, texture, and sophistication to any space. Both functional and decorative, it stands as a timeless piece where luxury meets understated design. Made in Italy.
