

Rugiada

Design: Wave Murano Glass

Description

Rugiada is a refined collection of Murano glass vases that embodies understated elegance and sculptural grace. Characterized by elongated necks, gently curved bodies and a delicate sandblasted finish, each piece radiates serene strength and tranquil beauty.

The matte surface adds a tactile dimension, diffusing light in a delicate, almost ethereal way. Minimalist yet expressive, Rugiada captures the essence of contemporary design through timeless craftsmanship. Available in a set of three vases, two small and one large, this piece is perfect for creating a harmonious and sophisticated display. Made in Italy.
