

Salemi

Design: Wave Murano Glass

Description

Salemi is the name of this luxury set of two handcrafted vases, a refined tribute to the timeless art of Murano glassblowing. The essence of the design lies in the classic rigadin technique: elegant vertical ribbing that adds texture and rhythm to the glass surface. When combined with the exceptional clarity and thickness of pure Murano glass, this pattern creates captivating refractions of light that shift and shimmer with every movement and angle of lighting.

The result is a harmonious balance of strength and delicacy, modern design and timeless craftsmanship. Offered as a select set of two vases with complementary shapes. Whether displayed together or separately, these pieces captivate with their sculptural beauty and radiant charm. Made in Italy.
