

Sfumati

Design: Wave Murano Glass

Description

Sfumati is a distinctive collection of Murano glass vases that celebrates the harmony between traditional craftsmanship and contemporary design. Each piece begins with expert hot work to give it its fluid, organic form and then moves to the cold work workshop, where skilled artisans meticulously carve the surface with a diamond wheel.

This intricate process creates soft gradients, depth of texture and a sense of movement, an effect that gives each vase its own unique identity. The result is a series of modern and elegant works of art, where each piece is unique. Available in a set of three, these pieces are a testament to the beauty of imperfection and the timeless charm of hand-finished glass. Made in Italy.
