

Henos

Design: Michele Losito

Description

Inspired by the beauty of details, the designer celebrates the power of small elements that, when united, give life to complex creations. Henos takes its name from the ancient Greek henosis, meaning “union”: the union of sun and moon in an eclipse, of cosmic forces converging into a mysterious, celestial black. Made in Italy.

Finishes & Materials

Structure: Turned and milled aluminum to accommodate flex tube lighting.
