

Hollywood

Description

A sophisticated desk that combines refined materials with functional elegance. Its stainless steel base, available in a selection of finishes, provides a sleek architectural foundation for the design. The top, offered in leather or lacquered finish, features two discreet drawers with internal storage compartments, ensuring order and practicality.

To one side, a three-drawer unit, upholstered in fine leather, creates a tactile contrast. Vertical quilted details enhance the piece with subtle depth. The refined Hollywood desk elevates the workspace to a place of inspiration and style: an ideal choice for modern interiors where design and functionality coexist seamlessly. Made in Italy.
