Design: Studio in Project

Description

An illuminating sculpture that seems to float effortlessly in the air, radiating grace and harmony. Each element contributes to a dynamic composition that can be adapted. By rotating the components according to the instructions, the lamp's configuration transforms—offering ever-changing spatial arrangements and a play of light that evolves with its surroundings.

The length of the cables is defined by the client and it is non-adjustable, with available measurements in increments of 2".

Made in Italy.

Finishes & Materials

Spotlight: Turned aluminum.

Ring: Glass with hand-cut diamond effect.
