

Manhattan

Design: Molteni

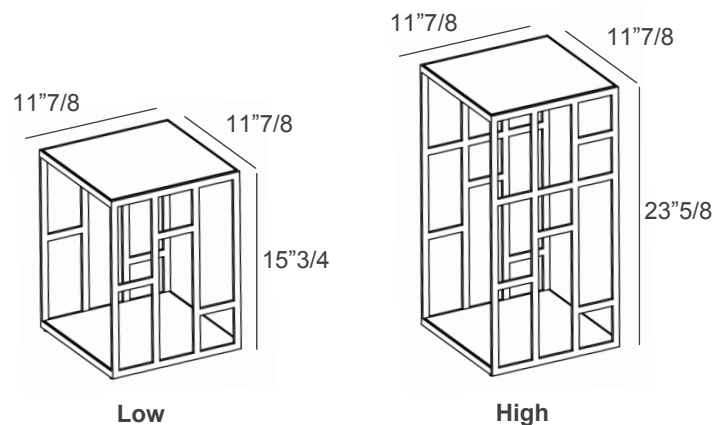

Description

Manhattan side table stands tall and elegant, much like the silhouette of New York's iconic skyscrapers. Its refined geometric design features a network of intersecting lines that create a sophisticated grid, offering both visual lightness and functional practicality. The integrated magazine rack enhances its versatility, making it a perfect blend of form and function. Ideal for luxury living room furniture sets, Manhattan expresses the timeless essence of Italian luxury furniture design, where craftsmanship meets architectural inspiration. A true statement piece in any contemporary furniture collection, it embodies the distinctive character of a high-end brand devoted to elegance and innovation. Made in Italy.
