

Agea

Design: C. Ballabio

Description

The Agea executive desk embodies the essence of a luxury furniture brand, combining timeless elegance with refined craftsmanship. Its sleek structure in solid canaletta walnut reflects the harmony between durability and artisanal detail. On each side, three spacious drawers offer everyday practicality, while the top—available in matching wood or Cuoietto saddle leather—introduces a sophisticated touch that elevates any executive setting.

Each drawer includes a removable tray with a Cuoietto-lined base, divided into three compartments for elegant organization. Designed for contemporary needs, the top integrates a Schuko socket and two retractable USB outlets, adaptable to either side. A modesty panel is included, enhancing both functionality and visual balance.

The Agea is a designer furniture piece that perfectly embodies modern luxury furniture design—a statement of prestige and refined taste. Made in Italy.
