

Akeru

Design: Giuseppe Viganò

Description

The Akeru TV stand reinterprets the refined spirit of the Akeru sideboard through the lens of modern living functionality. Maintaining the same luxury furniture design in canaletta walnut with a marble top, it adds smart technical solutions for contemporary lifestyles.

The top features a discreet grommet hole for cable passage, connecting to a lower compartment with a double bottom that ensures easy cable management and a clean, organized aesthetic. The removable back panel enhances accessibility, making maintenance effortless without compromising elegance. Defined by its balance of designer sophistication and everyday usability, the Akeru TV stand embodies contemporary luxury furniture—a seamless union of elegance, versatility, and modern living comfort. Made in Italy.
