

Oyster

Description

An island of pure comfort, Oyster is a round sofa with large dimensions characterized by a refined leather body worked according to the Italian tradition. The Oyster loveseat presents a rounded structure, offered in a variety of elegant finishes like the innovative leather working to project the brand values into the future. It recalls the elegance of a pinstripe suit by sewing together dozen small leather or cuoio strips, a very particular working which takes a particular detail to give rise to a new signature style, strongly marked and with a complex creation that expresses all the mastery of Mascheroni craftsmen.

Each Italian handmade Mascheroni product is marked with a plate engraved with the brand "Mascheroni srl Made in Italy" which certifies its authenticity.
