

Amphora

Design: Emmanuel Gallina

Description

The Amphora dining table enriches the Porada luxury furniture collection with a new expression of refined Italian craftsmanship and refined versatility. Its sculptural base, crafted from solid Canaletta walnut, embodies the brand's dedication to detail and material excellence.

Available in both wood and marble tops, Amphora adapts seamlessly to different modern and contemporary interiors. Balancing aesthetic sophistication with everyday practicality, Amphora represents a statement piece of luxury home furniture design, ideal for high-end dining spaces that celebrate both form and function.

Made in Italy.
