

Tokyo-Pop

Design: Tokujin Yoshioka

Description

The Tokyo-Pop lounge chair, embodies the poetic minimalism that defines contemporary design. Molded from a single block of polyethylene through advanced rotational molding, it transforms industrial technique into sculptural artistry.

Its flowing, organic lines and unconventional silhouette create a striking visual presence while ensuring comfort and durability. Available in refined white or deep black, this monoblock piece complements both indoor and outdoor spaces, offering an icon of modern elegance and sculptural design. Made in Italy.
