

Tokyo-Pop

Design: Tokujin Yoshioka

Description

The Tokyo-Pop sofa captures the essence of poetic minimalism and timeless contemporary design. Expertly crafted from a single block of high-quality polyethylene using advanced rotational molding, it transforms an industrial process into a true work of sculptural art.

With its fluid, organic curves and distinctive silhouette, this designer sofa delivers both visual impact and exceptional comfort. Durable, lightweight, and weather-resistant, it is perfectly suited for indoor living areas as well as outdoor lounges and terraces. Available in elegant white or sophisticated anthracite black, the Tokyo-Pop sofa stands as a statement piece of modern elegance, functional design, and enduring style. Made in Italy.
