

Tokyo-Pop

Design: Tokujin Yoshioka

Description

The Tokyo-Pop collection marked the international debut of Tokujin Yoshioka, establishing him as one of the masters of contemporary design. Characterized by its fluid, sculptural silhouettes, the collection redefines the expressive potential of rotational molding.

The Tokyo-Pop stool, crafted from a durable polyethylene monoblock, stands as both a functional object and a work of art. Its organic, asymmetrical form evokes a sense of movement and balance, offering a unique visual presence in any setting. Designed for indoor and outdoor use, it harmonizes effortlessly with modern, minimalist, or avant-garde interiors. A true icon of contemporary design, Tokyo-Pop transforms everyday seating into a timeless sculptural statement. Made in Italy.

Dimensions

15"3/4W x 15"D x 27"1/2H

